

Figure 1 is a schematic diagram illustrating a flow or relationship between two components. It consists of two rectangular blocks, one positioned above the other. The top block is labeled with the number 11, and the bottom block is labeled with the number 12. A vertical arrow points from the bottom center of block 11 down to the top center of block 12, indicating a downward flow or connection.

Fig. 1

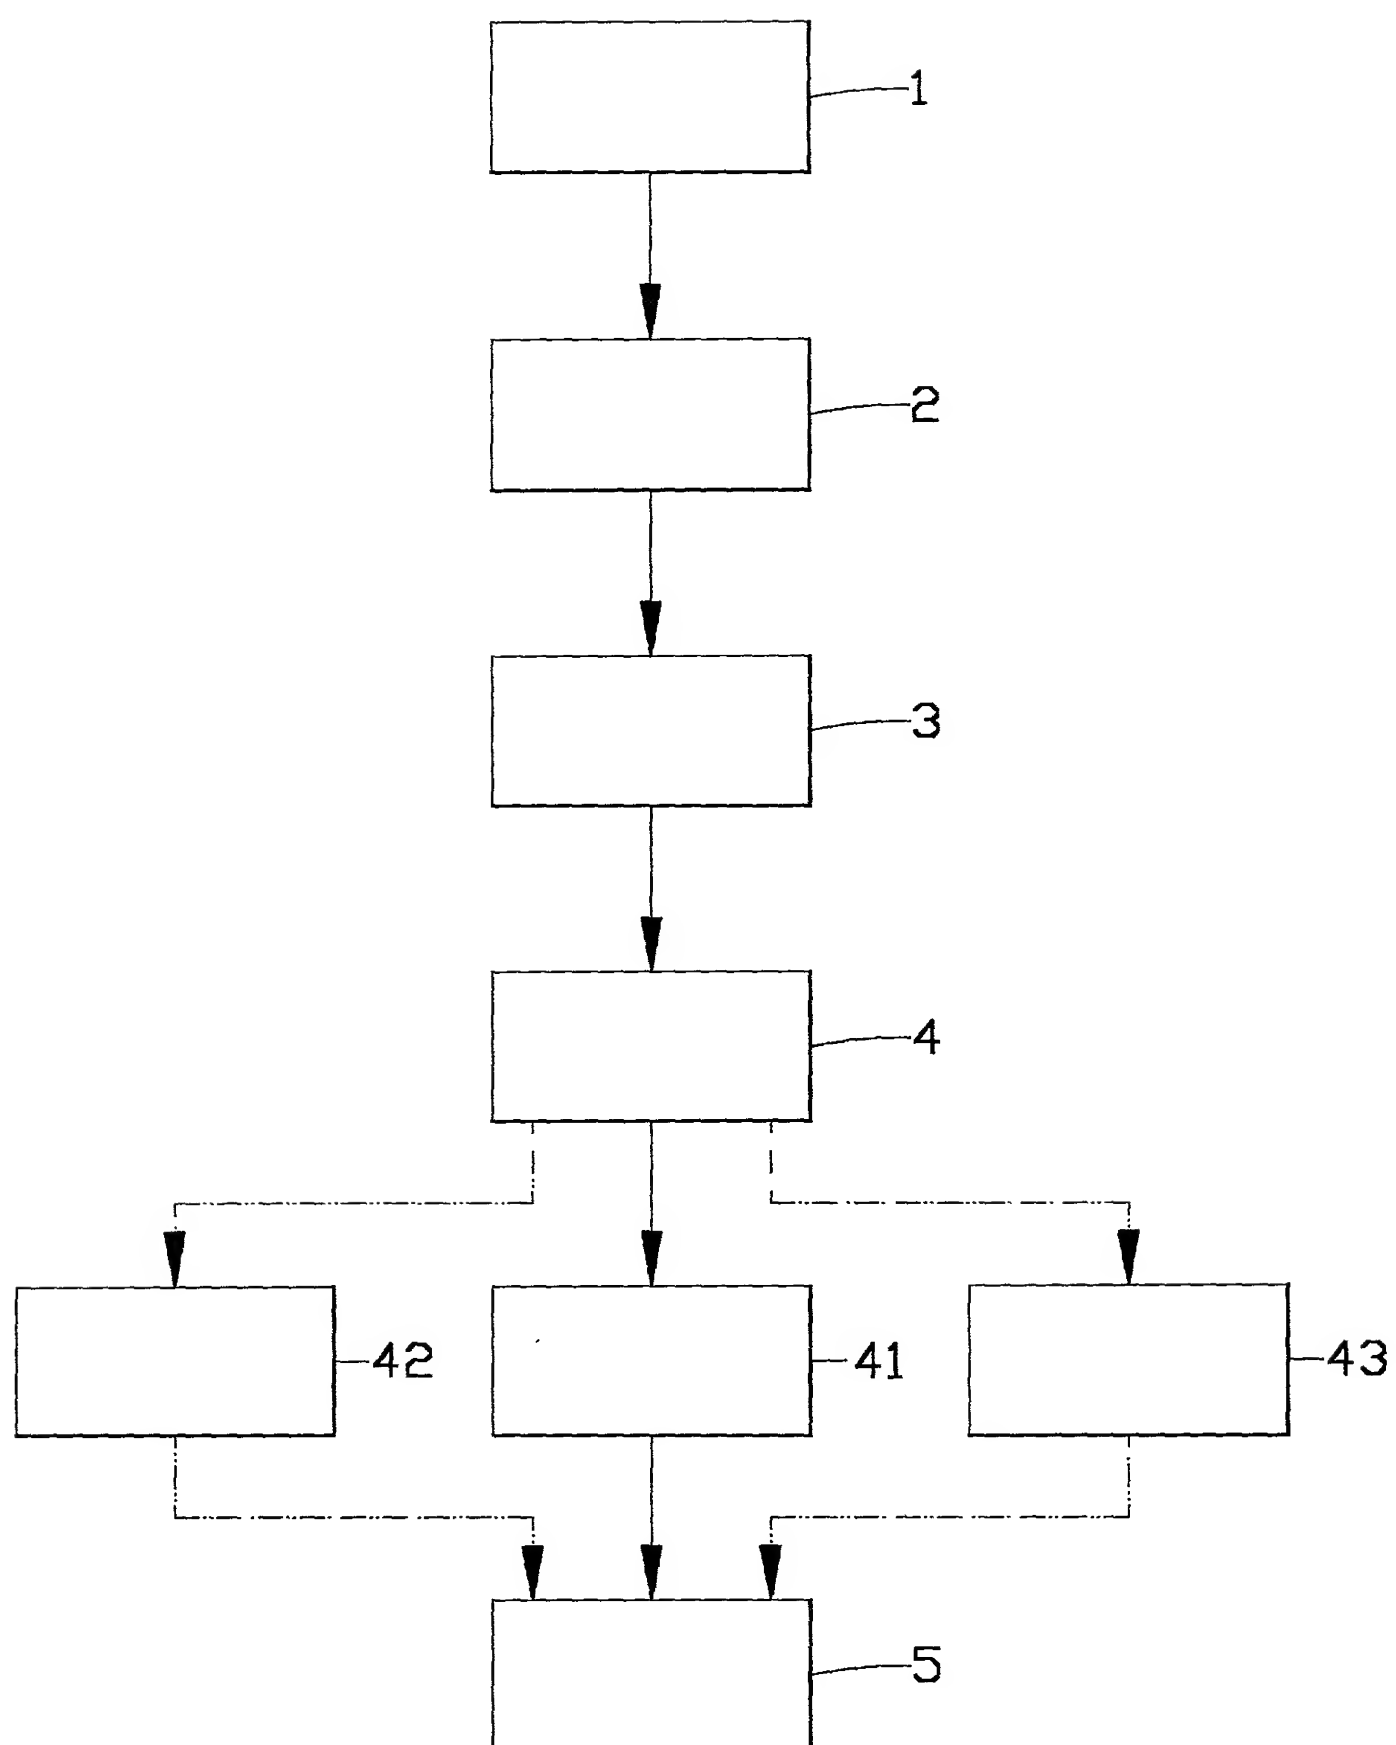

Fig. 2

Fig. 3